WILL ALWAYS MEET WITH PROMPT ATTENTION,

COLUMBIAN RESTORATIVES FOR THE HEARING,

PREPARED BY DAVID BROWN,

Corner of Exeter and Salisbury sts. O. T. Baltimore, State of Maryland, U. S. A.

And sold by him and his agents (in this State) at 5 dollars a package of five Vials.

The above medicines have improved the Hearing after 40 years of deafness, and have effected perfect cures in persons near 80 years of age. Its utility is fully proven by certificates from persons of the first respectability, who have been cured. As (among many others) the annexed will shew that it is safe for the young, and a perfect cure for them and those far advanced in years, (if the directions are strictly adhered to) and the proprietor is confident, that many who have always been deaf and dumb, may, through this medium, obtain the power of hearing, and then learn to speak.

DIRECTIONS.—Unstop the vial and shake it well, then drop speedily, for an adult, eight drops, for a child half the number, in a teaspoon previously warmed, that the liquid shall not chill the ear, which number of drops pour in each ear affected morning and evening until cured, keeping the ear loosely stopped with wool. If the number of drops proposed should produce a momentary pain, lessen the quantity (a drop at a time) until it will not. This Medicine has, in many instances, proved a speedy and effectual cure, whilst others required a longer period of time to effect that object.

N. B. Persons at a distance will please address him (post paid) giving a particular description of the past and present sensations in the ear or ears, (as the case may be) when they may be furnished with a package of the kind deemed most likely to effect a cure.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify that a daughter of mine, about six years old, being afflicted with deafness for nearly a year past, I purchased a vial of the "Columbia Restorative for the Hearing," prepared and sold by David Brown, which having been applied for a few weeks, had the desired effect in restoring her hearing.

August 10, 1832. JOSEPH I. OGDEN.

I, the subscriber, do hereby certify that owing to a severe cold in my head, I lost my hearing to that degree, that when spoken to in the loudest tone of voice, I was unable to comprehend what was said, until I had used for some weeks the "Columbia Restorative for the hearing," prepared and sold by David Brown, which, although I am 78 years of age, has perfectly restored my hearing, and he has my full permission to make it public for the benefit of others. My residence is in Park st. No. 88, a few doors North of Saratoga st. Baltimore. ALEX. McDONALD.

Oct. 22, 1832.

☞At same place may be obtained, the "Anti-Consumptive Compound," for inhalation, it being the most rational mode of reaching the seat of disease in the lungs, (as no liquid or solid can) and causing free expectoration without exciting a cough, and ultimately effecting a perfect cure, in most cases. Price 4 dolls. per dozen boxes Also, Tinctures for the cure of chronic Rheumatism, $6 per dozen vials—Inflammatory do. $1 per dozen powders—Liver Complaint, $1 per box of 12 pills—Tetters of ringworms, $1 per doz. vials—Anti-Cholera, at $3 and 1 50 per dozen, or $30 and $15 per gross according to the size of the vials.

Directions for using the aforementioned medicines.

FOR THE CURE OF DEAFNESS.

The Columbia Restorative for the hearing, in cases where it it may arise from taking cold, thereby producing a variety of sounds, (as the buzzing of insects, rushing of air through a crevice, and at times as the sound of bells, also like a waterfall—this is labelled with the letter A.

Letter B, applicable where there is a sensation of fulness in the ear, and an insensibility of the nerves.

Letter C, where a loss has been produced by inflammatory disease of any kind, causing a gathering in, and discharge from the Ear.

Letter D, where the ear has experienced a violent concussion of air, (as by discharge of cannon or otherwise) whereby the nerves have become paralized.

Letter E, where a healthy secretion of wax had ceased, and produced an unpleasant dryness therein.

FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC CONSUMPTION of the LUNGS.

Take a box of "Anti-Consumptive Compound," in which place a wick to burn as a lamp, (or it may be broken, and put a piece the size of a hickory nut, into a clean cup,) which place at the part of the room most remote from the patient, that the smoke may combine with the atmosphere of the room, and the person must keeps the mouth open to inhale it to the lungs, when he will be enabled to expectorate both easily and freely, and thereby be much relieved from the cause of disease. This smoke differs from common smoke, in that it excites no cough,) it strengthens the lungs, and heals (them after removing the offending cause, this would effect a cure when neither liquids nor solids would reach the inside of the lungs and consequently, could not effect a cure.

FOR THE CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

Take of Anti-Rheumatic Liniment labelled with either Anti Rheumatic Liniment, letter Z, Y, X or W, (if it is in a case of long duration, W is preferable,) after washing the part affected, well with weak, warm (common) ley, and while the pores are open thereby, apply the liniment, and wrap up in flannel the part affected.

FOR THE CURE OF INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

Take one of the Powders in a dry state, labelled F, every night at bed-time. The patient may use a sup of water to rinse his mouth after taking it.

FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT.

Take of the pills marked on label, G, one every other night, at bed-time; also use of diet drink contained in the vial labelled H, half an hour before each meal a wine glass half filled with said drink—which pills continue to amount of six, then cease three days, and resume it again, unless cured—the drink continue without intermission.

FOR THE CURE OF TETTERS, RINGWORMS, AND OTHER (CUTANEOUS) DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Take a wine glass half filled with "The Depurative Syrup," labelled I, half an hour before each meal, and at bed-time, to expel the humour to the surface; and then apply the "Tetter Tincture." labelled I, on the surface, to kill disease.

FOR THE CURE OF CHOLERA, AS ALSO A PREVENTIVE THEREFROM.

Take for the Spasmodic Cholera, (of the Anti-Cholera Specific, letter K,) one table spoonful every ten minutes, until the blood is diffused from the heart to the extremities; the cramp is relieved and the patient cured. As a preventive take one tea spoonful after each meal.

TO SUBSCRIBERS AND THE PUPLIC.

RICHARD J. MATCHETT, takes the privilege on presenting the patrons of his 6th edition of this work, of observing that, from the commencement of taking the citizens' names, to binding the book, he has met difficulty and expense at every step, which has delayed the publication beyond his expectations; he has however, completed his task, and if he has not done, "the best his circumstance allows" in it, he will say, he hopes never to be engaged in a more disagreeable one (rendered so by circumstances uninteresting to the public and useless to be recapitulated.) The task of visiting every house in the city, or paying for it, of spelling names (for which there is no rule,) pronounced alike, but spelt differently; of meeting rebuffs from the ignorant and impudent, and one has not far to travel to find such who however discreetly solicited for the necessary information, will wantonly insult; the erroneous charge in many instances of our having omitted names, by those who have not information sufficient to know where to examine for them; of miss-spelling; of not putting a more full direction &c. &c. We say the task has been found too severe for one individual (except the present publisher) to attempt a second edition, and what is still more aggravating these difficulties are thrown in the way by those generally whom the work has cost nothing.

In giving the register of names of a city containing over 80,000 inhabitants, it is most unreasonable to expect there will not be omissions, errors in spelling and inserting addresses, and yet some have come to call us to account for such incongruities ; after using our best efforts to be correct, however, we will not be found ready to gratify those who make impertinent remarks.

The total number of subscribers to the present edition does not amount to 500—we have printed 750 copies only—It has taken 15 weeks at $8 yer week to take the names, besides the cost of printing, of arranging them alphabetically, paper and binding; and hundreds complain that the book is too high; and hundreds who are well able to bear a proportion of the cost of so necessary and indispensable a work, refuse, as "it is to them unnecessary," yet will perhaps borrow it one hundred times to find those whom they want; there are hundreds of others also, who refuse to subscribe because they have "been taken in," and promised never to do so again; while we deny ever taking any in, we doubt the sincerity of four fifths of those making such statements.

Yet we return thanks for favors—yes we do, we return thanks to the 470 whose favors have prompted us to bring out the book, (and those who require the book and refuse to subscribe ought to do so to,) and to as many as will purchase it after it is out. But we offer no complaisances to those who act in the manner we have stated. While we desire to suppress grumbling, we also exercise the privilege of expressing truth.

☞We will cheerfully note all corrections furnished by subscribers or others, and if they will take the pains to examine and correct, we pledge ourselves to furnish them with a supplement gratis, by the 1st of July, but if they neglect it we cannot print it of course
